AB Automotive Electronics, Ltd.; AB Automotive Inc.; BI Technologies Corporation; International Resistive Company, Inc.; International Resistive Company of Texas, LP; Optek Technology, Inc.; and Welwyn Components Ltd (collectively, the "TT Group") asserted a protective objection and reservation of rights with respect to the assumption and assignment of executory contracts and the Debtors' proposed cure amounts related thereto. The TT Group asserts that (a) the contracts set forth by the Debtors may not be executory contracts (or contracts at all); (b) the Debtors are in default under certain executory contracts and such defaults must be cured prior to their assumption; and (c) the Debtors have not provided adequate assurance of future performance.	The TT Group has agreed to withdraw its objection with respect to all entities other than BI Technologies. The objection of BI Technologies has been adjourned to the October 7, 2009 hearing.

2.	18254, 18368, 18711	Autocam Corporation	Autocam Corporation ("Autocam") asserts that the procedures in the Modified Plan are unclear regarding payment of postpetition amounts owed under prepetition contracts, which amounts are not yet due and payable upon the later of June 1, 2009, or at the time of assumption and assignment. Autocam seeks a clear statement as to how the "non-past-due" administrative expenses owing to a non-Debtor counterparty will be paid and requests an escrow mechanism for these types of claims similar to those provisions in the Modified Plan concerning contested cure amounts. Autocam further objects to the Debtors' notices of assumption and assignment and asserts that, under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, executory contracts may not be assumed unless and until the Debtors assume the entire contract and pay all associated cure amounts. Finally, Autocam asserts that its executory contracts may not be assumed and assigned without providing adequate assurance of future performance as required by section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.	The objection has been withdrawn. (See Docket No. 18918.)

Behr America has agreed to withdraw its objection and the Debtors have agreed to withdraw their notices of assumption and assignment with respect to certain contracts.
